Renewing the mathies tools

with Ross Isenegger

WHEN	TIME	WHERE
Tuesday, December 8	6:30 – 7:30 PM	Online, via Zoom

Ross is one of the original mathies developers. He recently got curious: could Claude AI build new versions of the tools that run on every modern device, from computers and Chromebooks to tablets and phones?

Come hear a bit about what he discovered.

1. Hear the story of rebuilding the tools with AI
2. Try out the new tools on your own device
3. Give feedback to shape what comes next
